

God's Revelation of Himself in Creation

By Daniel Szczesniak; verses adapted from Robert P. Martin

Read Romans 1:18–20. What attribute(s) of God should I perceive when I look at the world around me?

Read Romans 1:21. What should be my response to this revelation?

Read Psalm 19:1–4. What attribute(s) of God should I perceive in the heavens and the passing of day and night?

Read Psalm 119:89–91. What conclusions should I reach because the earth “stands fast” and is “established”?

Read Proverbs 3:19–20. How powerful is God's wisdom?

Read Proverbs 3:13–18. What should my attitude be towards that wisdom?

Read Psalm 136:1–9. What should I understand about God from his creation of the world?

Read Revelation 4:11. What is my proper response to God's creation of the world?

Read Jeremiah 5:20–23. What is my proper response to God's creation of the world?

Read Psalm 33:4–9. What is my proper response to God's creation of the world?

Read Psalm 8. What is my proper response to God's creation of the world?

Read Psalm 24:1–4. What is my proper response to God's creation of the world?

